

Press release, 30 July 2007

Now available online:
English edition of German magazine AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP

The German magazine, AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP, is ready to introduce itself to the international airbrush community: At the website www.airbrush-magazine.net, airbrush users from all over the world can download the English online edition of AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP magazine.

AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP magazine is published on a quarterly basis in Germany and has been distributed in print form in all German-speaking countries in Europe since October of 2006. It appeals to both classical airbrusher and plastic scale modellers; to the body or custom painter; as well as to creative computer graphics artists and professional illustrators.

AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP magazine offers practical step-by-step descriptions for airbrush illustrations for different levels. It provides both guidelines on basic skills and professional tips. It presents state-of-the-art products and shows new operational techniques as well as news and reports on issues of airbrush and illustration.

AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP magazine is not only about classical analogue airbrush technique, it also introduces digital airbrushing as well. It shows airbrushing in parallels and intersections and complements options of both techniques. For the first time, step-by-step works will be shown in such a way that they can be done with both methods.

AIRBRUSH STEP BY STEP readers may also use the members section on the magazine's website to find exclusive preparatory drawings, high-resolution photos, extra pictures and texts as well as videos for free. Secret log-in details are provided inside the magazine.

The English edition starts with the current issue 03/07 focussing on airbrush body and nail art as well as hyperrealism. The issue can be downloaded as a PDF file at a price of 4 Euro (~ $ 5,46 / £ 2,70) by using e-payment. Previous issues and subscriptions will also be available soon.
